On January 3, 2018, the Company announced that after recently reaching its target enrollment of 150 subjects in the phase 3 heiGHt Trial of TransCon Growth Hormone for pediatric growth hormone deficiency (GHD) that it expects to randomize over 160 subjects in this trial. Based on one-year follow-up, the Company anticipates announcing top-line results in the first quarter of 2019.

Forward Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this report regarding the Company’s future operations, plans and objectives of management are forward-looking statements. Examples of such statements include, but are not limited to, statements relating to the Company’s expectations regarding (i) the number of subjects in the phase 3 heiGHt Trial and (ii) the timing of top-line results from the phase 3 heiGHt Trial. The Company may not actually achieve the plans, carry out the intentions or meet the expectations or projections disclosed in the forward-looking statements and you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Actual results or events could differ materially from the plans, intentions, expectations and projections disclosed in the forward-looking statements. Various important factors could cause actual results or events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements that the Company makes, including the following: unforeseen safety or efficacy results in its heiGHt Trial; unforeseen expenses related to the development of TransCon Growth Hormone; delays in the development of TransCon Growth Hormone related to manufacturing, regulatory requirements, speed of patient recruitment or other unforeseen issues; dependence on third party manufacturers to supply trial drug for planned clinical studies; and the Company’s ability to obtain additional funding, if needed, to support its business activities. For a further description of the risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from those expressed in these forward-looking statements, as well as risks relating to the Company’s business in general, see the Company’s current and future reports filed with, or submitted to, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), including its Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC on March 22, 2017. Forward-looking statements do not reflect the potential impact of any future in-licensing, collaborations, acquisitions, mergers, dispositions, joint ventures, or investments that the Company may enter into or make. The Company does not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
